Supreme court of India pronounced its judgement on September 26th 2018 As you may be aware that the apex court has clearly stated and is evident from Ref 1 that corporate bodies which includes banks and or mobile companies are prohibited from seeking authentication purely on the basis of a contract and use of Aadhaar number beyond Section 7 of the Aadhaar Act must be backed by law And the enacted law will be subject to judicial scrutiny As per supreme court order Aadhar card is not mandatory for Any institute for registration	Aadhaar Card is not mandatory in GeM for registration. Seller can register using Aadhaar/PAN. Once a seller is registered using aadhaar card and if he want to change his mobile number he has to update his/her aadhaar because mobile number for the seller was the same mobile number which was linked with aadhaar. So for maintaining the sanity Aadhaar card re-verification is required for the given screen.

As a result of which we are at a loss to think what is the reason for non considering our Firm. We therefore, request you to let us know the specific reason, your system or process at the earliest for granting the contract in favour of any Seller. Thanking you, For N K Marketing Tapash Chakravarty	We would like to inform you that, buyer gets a system Run L1 option to select the successful L-1 bidder, in case of multiple L-1 bidders. System Run L1 works on a pseudorandom number generator algorithms, which is a system generator based on linear congruential algorithms. In simple words, it acts just like a lottery system, where all the L1s have equal chances to be selected. This algorithms runs in the background, & the buyer gets the name of successful bidder automatically on the screen. It has been observed that in last FY approx. 12,000 orders were awarded in this category and around 4900 unique service providers got at least 1 order through GeM. Hence it is assured that random selection logic does not exhibit any kind of bias to a specific bidder.

184	What is the technical procedure for randomly selecting multiple L 1 bidders in GeM service bids. How can we increase the probability chances of being randomly selected by GeM with multiple L 1 bidders in the GeM service bid.	1. In case of multiple L-1 bidders, the buyer gets a system Run L1 option to select the successful L-1 bidder. System Run L1 works on a pseudorandom number generator algorithm, which is a system generator based on linear congruential algorithms. This algorithm runs in the background, & the buyer gets the name of the successful bidder automatically on the screen. 2. There are no other factors considered for the selection, as all the bidders are technically qualified by the buyer & no weightage to any other criteria is given. All bidders have equal probability to become L1 bidder based on the algorithm explained in point no. 1 above.

195	I am writing to request information regarding the workplace harassment policy at GeM (Government e-Marketplace) and the procedures followed when a harassment case is reported. Specifically, I would like to understand: 1. The official policy on workplace harassment at GeM. 2. The process for reporting incidents of harassment. 3. The steps and protocols followed to investigate and address reported cases. 4. The actions or measures taken once a case is confirmed. 5. The support mechanisms in place for employees who raise such concerns. One more point brings to your attention a critical issue regarding the treatment of third-party staff employed at GeM (Government e-Marketplace). It has come to my notice that many third-party staff members are treated unfairly, often regarded as labourers rather than equal contributors to the organization. Some of the concerns include: 1. Mental harassment and unnecessary work overload imposed by regular staff. 2. Lack of appropriate measures or action taken by GeM to address these issues. This situation not only undermines workplace harmony but also negatively impacts morale and productivity. I believe it is essential for GeM to ensure that all employees, including third-party staff, are treated with respect and dignity, and that clear policies are enforced to prevent harassment and unfair treatment. I am writing this mail to the officials to make them aware of what is happening in GeM,	Please find response to your queries as below: 1. The official policy on sexual harassment at workplace in GeM can be found at following link: https://assets-bg.gem.gov.in/resources/upload/shared_doc/prevention-of-sexual-harrassment-against-women-at-_1694076709.pdf 2 to 5: GeM at its forefront has a zero tolerance approach towards any kind of harassment at workplace . Policies like grievance redressal , Prevention of Sexual harassment against women , Whistle Blower policy and others are displayed on our HRMS Portal for employees to understand the process including the mode of raising such concerns. Regarding third party employees : - There is no such case that has come to the notice of GeM HR and has not been resolved. Any concerns raised are informed to the appropriate authorities carefully keeping in mind the sensitivity of the concern raised and respecting the rights of the person raising the concern. Employees working in any capacity are treated fairly according to set rules and regulations . In addition whether employees working on roll or off role GeM has platforms like employee surveys , Townhall , suggestion box as mode of communication and the respective committees stated in the above policies for redressal of any concerns , grievances or harassment.

	how the work is depreciated and no action is taken by HR against the depreciated people, due to this many staff and third-party staff are forced to leave from here. The HR level resolves the cases of harassment at its end and does not keep them in further committee. Kindly send us reply on round276@gmail.com Thank you for your time and assistance. Best regards Surjeet Singh explain the official reason or policy restriction. 2. Who is responsible for final vendor selection among multiple L1 bidders in service contracts - the GeM platform system or the buyer (procuring department)? If it is the buyer, what mechanism or process is available for making that selection? 3. What are the parameters and criteria used by GeM's auto-selection algorithm in the service sector when multiple L1 bidders exist? 4. Does the auto-selection logic consider purchase preference policies issued by the Government of India for: SC/ST entrepreneurs under the Public Procurement Policy for MSES, 2012? - Registered Women Entrepreneurs under MSME schemes? 5. Kindly provide the following official documents: Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) or policy documents defining the auto-selection logic used in service tenders. - Guidelines or official notifications regarding preference for SC/ST/Women-led MSMEs in GeM tender awarding logic. Any excerpts from internal documentation or algorithmic rules that define how the system selects among equally priced and technically eligible L1 bidders. 6. Under what conditions does the GeM platform cancel or withhold selection in cases of identical L1 bids from multiple vendors?

6	Subject: Request for Clarification on Auto-Selection Logic and Preference Policy for SC/ST Women Entrepreneurs in Service Sector Tenders on GeM -Application under RTI Act, 2005 Respected Sir/Madam, I am filing this request under the Right to Information Act, 2005, seeking detailed information regarding the Government e-Marketplace (GeM) vendor selection process in the service sector, particularly in scenarios involving SC/ST women entrepreneurs. Case Scenario: - A service sector tender is published on the GeM portal. - All technically qualified bidders have quoted the same L1 price. All bidders are MSME and NSIC registered general category vendors, except one, who is an SC/ST woman entrepreneur with valid MSME and NSIC registration. - All bidders are technically eligible. Information Requested: 1. In such a scenario, does the GeM platform automatically select the SC/ST woman entrepreneur under any applicable Government preference policy? If not, kindly	1. No, there is not any government preferential policy when procurement is through open bid on GeM for SC/ST woman entrepreneur. 2. GeM platform system is responsible for final vendor selection among multiple L1 bidders in service bids. 3. Buyer gets a system Run L1 option to select the successful L-1 bidder, in the case of multiple L-1 bidders. System Run L1 works on pseudorandom number algorithms, which is a system generator based on linear congruential algorithms. In simple words, it acts just like a lottery system, where all the L1s have equal chances to be selected. This algorithm runs in the background, & the buyer gets the name of successful bidder automatically on the screen. 4. No, as stated in point no. 1 above 5. Already replied in point no. 1 & 3 above. 6. GeM platform does not cancel any bid. It is the prerogative of the buyer to or not to cancel any bid.

7	Please provide the information the ministry/department is allow to publish the "custom bid" while the items are different from one to another mentioned in the bid and it is allow in hiring of vehicles with the approval of 'Government E Marketing'. Please provide the information the ministry/department is allow re-new OR extend the contract without 'GeM Portal' through manual work order, while it is violation of GFR Rule-149, 2017 with the approval of 'Government E Marketing'.	Custom bidding at the Government e-Marketplace (GeM) allows buyers to procure goods or services that are not available as standard category items. GeM does not provide any approval to any buyer for floating the custom bid. There is a set procedure for obtaining GeM Availability Report from GeM portal and based on that buyer organization may float a custom bid on GeM for procurement of goods & services that are not available as standard category on GeM. Buyers can extend the contract by 25% of the original contract value only if it has opted the option clause while creating the bid on GeM portal. In services, online contract extension is not possible in case of custom bid of services and lump sum-based category services. Buyers need to exercise the extension of such contracts outside the GeM system as per their internal policies and approvals.

	2. कृपया यह भी बताएं कि जब पहले से टू पैकेट बिडिंग सिस्टम मौजूद था, तब सिंगल पैकेट प्रणाली लागू करने की आवश्यकता क्यों पड़ी। - यदि इसके लिए किसी नियम/मैनुअल/अधिसूचना का उल्लेख है, तो कृपया उसकी प्रति उपलब्ध कराई जाए एवं क्लॉज/पृष्ठ संख्या का उल्लेख अवश्य किया जाए।	कृपया ऊपर बिंदु संख्या 1 के अंतर्गत दिए गए उत्तर का संदर्भ लें।
	3. कृपया यह स्पष्ट करें कि सिंगल पैकेट बिडिंग सिस्टम किन-किन निविदाओं पर लागू होता है। क्या यह सभी निविदाओं पर लागू है या केवल कुछ विशेष श्रेणियों पर? - यदि इसका आधार किसी नियम/मैनुअल में है, तो उसका पृष्ठ संख्या और क्लॉज दिया जाए।	खरीदार अपने लागू खरीद दिशा निर्देशों के अनुसार खरीद आवश्यकता के आधार पर एकल पैकेट या 2 पैकेट बोली का विकल्प चुनता है।

I PRICING OF ITEMS ON GEM
a) The mechanisms in place to verify that the base prices of items listed on GeM are reasonable and not artificially inflated	It may be noted that Base price (MRP) is a decision of the OEM and hence, GeM may not comment on the reasonability / artificial inflation of MRP of any product. GeM only limits itself to verifying whether the MRP mentioned for a catalog matches the information available through other sources, to the extent possible. It may also be noted that all the catalog requests created on GeM portal do not flow through an approval process and such catalogs are auto-approved based on trust. More details on this may be referred at GeM Quadrant Policy available at https://assets-bg.gem.gov.in/resources/pdf/quadrant-policy-of-gem.pdf For the catalog requests flowing through the approval process, the following mechanism is in place: 'MRP as mentioned in the catalog approval request must be supported by following documentary proof: Photo of the product packaging (depicting MRP) wherever packaging is applicable for the product. The photo must be real and depiction of MRP on it should be as per the laws of the Land. In case packaging is not applicable for the product (GeM's decision shall be final in this matter) then either of the following documents can be submitted:

	• MRP document (Annexure – 1) issued by the OEM on the official letterhead (not older than one year from the date of issuance) duly containing the following - o The date of issuance of letter o Either ink signed (directly on the document) or digitally signed by the OEM o OEM company stamp • Price/ rate list issued by OEM (not more than one year old) MRP may be checked / compared with the information on the brand / company website or other ecommerce portals (if applicable). If the MRP is not found to be in sync with the market price for the product, the request is notified.'
b) Any benchmarking conducted by GeM authorities or market comparison before allowing listing of products	For the catalog requests flowing through the approval process, MRP is checked / compared with the information on the brand / company website or other ecommerce portals (if applicable). If the MRP is not found to be in sync with the market price for the product, the catalog request is notified. As far offered price is concerned, they are governed by price bound specified in the system in each category. This price bound is at the category level, not at the catalog level. The price bound is decided basis the stakeholder consultation, market research etc.
c) Guidelines or standard operating procedures relating to price reasonability checks	GeM reviews the offer prices listed by different sellers to determine abnormal offer prices using Machine Learning Techniques. This is done at two different stages: 1. At the time of Offer price listing/ update - GeM provides a warning to the seller if the price quoted is Abnormally High/Low 2. Post-Listing Price Review: GeM undertakes periodic review of selected catalogues across categories to identify abnormal or inconsistent pricing, and such offers are removed through the incident management process where required.
II USE OF REPRESENTATIVE OR REPETITIVE PRODUCT PHOTOGRAPHS
a) Rules governing the use of representative images by sellers	The guidelines may be referred at: https://assetsbg.gem.gov.in/resources/upload/shared_doc/productimage-guidelines-gem-1_1743502954.pdf
b) Verification process in place to ensure authenticity of product photographs
c) Cases where multiple vendors used identical product images for different brands	Identical product image is not a cause of action as long as the brand depicted on the image (wherever available) and the brand name selected in the request are same.
III HIGH DISCOUNT OFFERS
a) Scrutiny mechanism for offers showing extremely high discounts such as 90 percent to 95 percent off	Refer to the reply in point no. I (c)

c) Copies of any internal audit or vigilance reports on such pricing patterns.	No vigilance reports on such pricing patterns are available
V QUALITY CONTROL OF PRODUCTS
a) Quality assurance mechanism in place for products listed on GeM.	Quality assurance on GeM is ensured through OEM/brand authorisation requirements including Vendor Assessment, adherence to applicable BIS/ISO or other prescribed standards in product categories, and action under GeM GTC/Incident Management Policy in case of quality-related complaints.
b) Number of complaints regarding poor quality products received in the last three years.	During the last three years, a total of 5,730 complaints have been received from buyers under the category "Supplies goods of inferior/substandard quality against contract value."
